Technical Committee:

The duties of the Technical Committee are as described in IODA Article 8. It is desirable that at least two of its members shall be World Sailing International Measurers.

Each member is expected to attend the measurement days of at least one IODA Championship. It is expected that Technical Committee members are to attend a Technical Committee Meeting if held during the year.

Expenses:

For the World Championships and AGM, the Organizers shall pay the travel expenses, accommodation, meals and local transport for the President, two members of the Technical Committee and two Members of the Regatta Committee who have been appointed to the World Championship.

IODA will cover the travel costs and an adult entry fee for the Vice Presidents and Treasurer to attend the World Championship and AGM, provided they are not the country representative, team leader or coach of a team.

In addition, Vice Presidents receive entry fee and travel costs to one IODA Continental Championship as do Regatta and Technical Committee members appointed to the Championship.

For the MYM, all Executive Committee members receive travel costs, accommodation and meals. No expenses are paid in respect of partners but these may be accommodated at IODA championships by paying the fee paid by adult team officials.

If the Technical Committee and Regatta Committee hold a meeting during the year (usually close to the Executive MYM), members will receive travel costs, accommodation and meals.

All expenses are reimbursed as outlined in the IODA Travel Policy.
